

Hillsboro High School

Academy of Global Health and Science

The Academy of Global Health and Science Mission:

To equip global citizens with the knowledge and skills needed to pursue post-secondary and career opportunities in Healthcare and Research Science.

HILLSBORO
HIGH SCHOOL
AN INTERNATIONAL BACCALAUREATE
WORLD SCHOOL

Pathways:

Interdisciplinary Science and Research

- Interdisciplinary Science and Research I
- Interdisciplinary Science and Research II
- Interdisciplinary Science and Research III
- Interdisciplinary Science and Research IV
- Courses co-taught with a Vanderbilt Scientist

Therapeutic Services

- Health Science Education
- Anatomy and Physiology
- Medical Assisting

VANDERBILT  UNIVERSITY
MEDICAL CENTER

Vanderbilt Collaborative STEM Education
Outreach

Sports and Human Performance

- Health Science Education
- Rehabilitation Careers
- Exercise Science

Elective Courses:

Introduction to Environmental Studies

Dual Enrollment course with Tennessee Tech University

Environmental Studies Research I

Dual Enrollment course with Tennessee Tech University

Environmental Studies Research II

Dual Enrollment course with Tennessee Tech University

Environmental Communications

Dual Enrollment course with Tennessee Tech University

International Baccalaureate Sports Exercise

Internship Opportunity:

REHSS program with

Vanderbilt Center for Science Outreach

Industry Certification Opportunity:

Certified Clinical Medical Assistant

Certified Personal Trainer

OSHA 10

BLS Certification (CPR)

Dual Enrollment Opportunity:

Students are enrolled in the Therapeutic Service, Sports and Human Performance, or Interdisciplinary Science and Research pathway and the International Baccalaureate Career-Related Program.

Club:

HOSA Future Health Professionals

Students develop leadership and academic skills through networking, conferences, and healthcare industry based competitions on local, regional, state, and international levels: students also engage in fundraising and community service activities.

